Dress at Mass

Warm weather has arrived, and with it the easy, casual clothing of summertime. However, we must carefully consider the appropriateness and modesty of our dress, particularly when it comes to attendance at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. We come to Mass to celebrate the most sacred act of worship for Catholics. Our attire should reflect reverence to the presence of our God. What is good for the beach or the tennis court is not proper for a wedding or a solemn graduation ceremony. Similarly, shorts, halter tops and t-shirts are not proper for the worship of our God. Please consider this before you come to Holy Mass.

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time July 11, 2010

First Reading: Deuteronomy 30:10-14

Moses petitions the people to follow the commandments God has set before them. He reminds them that the laws are not in the sky or far away at sea, but are accessible to them and meant to be followed if they wish to prosper.

Second Reading: Colossians 1:15-20

Paul discusses the divine nature of Jesus, and explains that Jesus was created before anything else. Everything else was "created through him, and for him."

Gospel: Luke 10:25-37

While discussing everlasting life, a lawyer mentions loving one's neighbor as oneself. The lawyer then asks Jesus, "Who is my neighbor?" Jesus tells him about a man beaten by robbers, who was ignored by both a priest and a Levite before a Samaritan stopped and offered him aid. Jesus asks the lawyer who was neighbor to the injured man. The lawyer says "the one who treated him with compassion." Jesus encourages him to go and do the same.
